Trip Overview

Meet your private chauffeur and embark on an exciting day trip to explore the charming towns of Split and Šibenik! It was the Romans who put Split on the map when Emperor Diocletian built his retirement palace there in the 4th century. Aside from being the center of Split's old town, Diocletian's Palace is a living World Heritage Site and one of the most impressive intact Roman palaces on the planet. In addition to housing various Roman ruins and medieval churches, the sprawling royal residence is also bursting with trendy shops, stylish bars, and brand-name boutiques. Enjoy a private walking tour of Split and Diocletian's palace with your expert local guide before continuing to Šibenik. En route stop to visit a charming family-run winery and enjoy tasting award-winning wine sourced from traditional grape varieties that have been locally cultivated for generations, complimented with homemade Dalmatian delicacies. Continue with your chauffeur to Šibenik, the only town in Croatia that has not one but two UNESCO World Heritage Sites. This historical, fortified town is the oldest native Croatian town on the shores of the Adriatic Sea. After your private walking tour of Šibenik, enjoy some free time to relax on your own before returning to Split.
